Vicar's message:

Greetings to you all in the matchless name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. It gives me immense pleasure to address you all through this month News Letter. We have entered the last quarter of this financial year and let us thank God for His innumerable blessing, which are beyond our description and measure. The family retreat and the parish picnic of our Church were arranged in a meaningful way. Once again I would like to congrats all office bearers, the subcommittee members and the Church committee members for your timely effort and leadership. Most of the families have participated Good Samaritan fund collection and the new academic year collection. The Good Samaritan collection will be utilized for the home for homeless project (Snehadhanam) of the Church. I express my sincere thanks to all those who have contributed sincerely.

“The fear of God is the beginning of wisdom” (Psalms 111: 10a). We have been blessed with a large number of students in our church. I hope that all have enjoyed the summer vacation. Congratulations for your good performance during the last academic year. A new academic year is going to start shortly. This is the time to rededicate ourselves before God, the source of all wisdom and knowledge. The new academic year service and the honoring of the new graduate were conducted meaningfully. The special offertory collected through this service will be utilized for providing financial assistance to the economically backward student. The new academic year Sunday school classes begin in the first week of September. May I request all children to attend the classes promptly and systematically. The new Sunday school academic year dedication will be held on September 11, 2016. The Sunday school teacher's dedication will be held on 4th September, 2016.

Epiphany MTC family retreat 2016 was held on August 5th to August 7th at the Eddy Farm Retreat Center, Sparrow Bush, New York. The theme was “Celebrating the Pilgrimage” based on Genesis 12:1. Rev. Denny Philip, Diocesan Secretary, Rev. P.M.Thomas, Rev. Jogy Thomas, Mr. Shibu Mathew and Mrs. Betsy Mathew were the leaders. Nearly 100 parish members participated. Sessions were arranged in two tracks – one for the youth and young families and the other track for the general participants. Overall, the retreat was a time for reflection, self assessment, transformation and great blessing for all the participants.

The Edavaka Mission convention was held on August 12^t to 14th, 2016 in the Church. Dr. Thomas George (St. George MTC, Fort Kochi) was the speaker. The theme was “the Characteristics of Christian faith”. As christian believers we need a clear understanding about God's blessing and a faithful life. It was a time for contemplation and dedication for all the participants. I would like to express my sincere thanks to all members and office bearers of the Edavaka Mission for your timely leadership and cooperation.

As a called community, we all are the stewards of God's Grace and our discipleship is not an expression of a position but it's a disciplined and loving life style. To reveal Christ always through his life was a constant desire in Paul's heart. In Phil 3:8, Paul says “For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regards them as rubbish” - these words depict the depth of Paul's relation to Christ. Paul repeatedly says that Christ is the Gospel- there is no other Gospel but Christ. This Gospel renews us daily – in fact the renewal of the Church is based on the Gospel. Reformation is an ongoing process. It should reflect in our whole life. The Holy Spirit, who refreshes us each day, strengthens us to spread the Gospel of Christ – this is our great calling.

Let us become living witness always revealing Christ – the real gospel to the world today. May the Almighty Lord be with us and bless our ways and ministry in this faith journey.

With Prayerful Regards,

Jogyachen, August 23rd, 2016.

Mr. Reji Mathew (26 Yrs), our beloved member who was residing at 675 Crans St, Elmont, NY passed away on August 1, 2016. Wake service was held on August 8th at Park Funeral Chapels in New Hyde Park and the Home going Service was held on August 9th at Epiphany Mar Thoma Church and at Greenfield Cemetery at Uniondale, NY. Reji was a well known youth Lay Leader of our Church and a man of good moral values. He will be deeply missed.

The Vicar and members of Epiphany Mar Thoma Church express our deep felt condolence to these bereaved families. Please uphold these families in our prayers.

Reji V Mathew (1990 – 2016)

Epiphany Basketball Tournament

We will be hosting our very first Basketball Tournament on September 3rd 2016. Our vision for this tournament is to be able to unite our sister Mar Thoma Parishes in Christ throughout both the Northeast and Southeast region. With the potential proceeds we receive from this tournament, we would like to be able to continue this tournament into an annual event and also donate to the Homes for the Homeless organization.

This tournament is being funded solely on donations, sponsorships and fundraising, so we are in need of your help. If you are interested in supporting us and this tournament financially either through donation or sponsorship, please contact Sherin Daniel and she will be able to assist in explaining the details.

We humbly ask our church members to keep the success of this tournament in your prayers and pray God allows this event to be made possible. God Bless!

FROM DIOCESAN EPISCOPA:

Dearly Beloved,

Greetings to all in the name of Jesus Christ! With the blossoming of greenery we experience freshness. How beautiful it is to see the environment created by God, which He has entrusted to human beings to shape and sustain. This summer we had many conferences focusing on human responsibility in a world created by God.

The Regional Family Conference in Edmonton during the first week of July was on the theme 'Be a Good Steward'. The world created by God was 'good' in every sense but sadly it is either being polluted or destroyed through human selfishness and greed. Bringing back the lost glory to the environment and the world is the mission of restoration inaugurated by Jesus Christ and entrusted to the faithful followers in the Church.

The Junior-Senior Conferences held in the 1st and 2nd weeks of July at Ramapo College, New Jersey, motivated hundreds of children to refresh their understanding of scripture and renew their commitment to Christ. The theme 'Blueprint – Your Story God's Design' helped them to see how they reflect the design of God and how to live according to God's plan. The Sunday school teachers took a lot of effort to organize the conferences in the best manner possible.

The Yuvajana Sakhyam Conference held in Chicago dealt with 'Re-Presenting Christ in a Chaotic World', which was another eye opener to the realities of the world and to respond to the call of caring for fellow human beings and preserving lives in this universe.

The Conference of the Voluntary Evangelists Association during the fourth week of July in Philadelphia studied the theme, 'Arise and Go: the Call and Commission'. The participants felt the need to renew their vision and participate in the mission of Christ, which is a mandate given to all who accept the Lordship of Christ. Therefore, it is desirous of the faithful members of the church to express Christ-likeness in life and work.

This vision was visible in the members of the Diocesan Youth Fellowship who gathered in Calvin College, Grand Rapids, for their conference and studied the theme 'I Am With You'. It was a reminder to the young minds that they are not alone, but God walks with them in their journey and we need everyone to accompany one another in the spiritual pilgrimage.

I thank God for the active participation of all our organizations in the life of the church. It is our wish and prayer that God may continue to give new insights to all members of the church to be a part of changing the lives of people. I trust God will guide us in facing the struggles of life and working for the glory of God. Let us uphold everyone in prayer and do the best we can for enhancing God's kingdom in this world.

With prayers and regards,

Rt. Rev. Dr. Isaac Mar Philoxenos

YOUTH CHAPLAIN'S CORNER.

"Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, "but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised" - Proverbs 31:30

'Gray hair is the crown of glory; it is gained in a righteous life.' – Proverbs 16: 32

This month in September, the Mar Thoma Church celebrates Suvisesha Sevika Sangham Day and Senior Citizens Day. It is important that we realize the importance of these two groups: women and the elderly. Both groups are an important part of our society and our church, but both groups are often not given the respect the Bible shows they deserve.

Women:

When God created mankind, He created both "male and female." Both were created in God's image and both were given the responsibility of exercising authority over God's creation. The man was created first but he needed companionship and a helper, so God created a woman. Man is incomplete without woman. Because she is called a "helper" does not imply that she is inferior to man. The same Hebrew word translated as helper is used of God in His relationship to Israel (Ps 33:20; 70:5).

Even though ancient Israel was a male dominated culture, some of the finest leaders in Israel were women: victories were sometimes won because of the courage of one woman (Judges 4-5; 9:54; Est 4:16). God revealed His Word through prophetesses (Judges 4:4). The heroes of faith mentioned in Hebrews 11 include Sarah (v. 11), Moses' mother (v. 23), and Rahab (v. 31).

But it is Jesus that exemplified God's view of women. He allowed women disciples to accompany Him and His male disciples on their journeys (Luke 8:1-3). He talked with the Samaritan woman at Jacob's Well and led her to a conversion experience (John 4). It was the apostle Paul who wrote, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus" (Gal 3:28).

Elders

In ancient times authority was given to older people with wider experience. These were often considered the most qualified to hold places of leadership.

In the Old Testament those leaders associated with Moses in governing the nation of Israel were called "the elders of Israel" (Ex 3:16; 24:1), "the elders of the people" (Ex 19:7), or the "seventy elders" (Ex 24:1). Once the Israelites reached the Promised Land, groups of elders ruled in each city. These elders were viewed as the representatives of the nation and its people. These leaders were responsible for legal, political and military guidance and supervision.

A similar approach was followed in the early church. Elders were associated with James in Jerusalem in the local church's government (Acts 11:30; 21:18) and, with the apostles, in the decision of the early church council (Acts 15). Elders were also appointed in the churches established during the apostle Paul's first missionary journey (Acts 14:23). Elders played an important role in church life through their ministry to the sick (James 5:14, 15). They were apparently the teachers also in a local congregation.

In addition to ministering to the sick, their duties consisted of explaining the Scriptures and teaching doctrine (1 Tim 5:17; 1 Peter 5:5).

This month as we celebrate Sevika Sangham Day and Senior Citizens Day, let us remember that it is the will of God that all his children, regardless of race, color, age, or sex should be loved, honored, and respected. Women and elders have contributed greatly to the advancement of God's Kingdom here on earth. Their knowledge, experience, and love have changed the world.

Yours in Christ's Service,

Rev. Shibi Abraham
